Lectures.

1. On Chemistry, the first and second Terms.
2. — Mineralogy, the second Term.
3. — Natural Philosophy, second and third Terms.
4. — Rhetoric and Oratory, first, second, and third Terms.

The above outline is not intended to be a perfectly full and accurate statement of the studies of the New Course. All the Text-Books have not been determined; because it is presumed, that a more judicious selection may be made, as the first class proceeds through the successive stages of the course. The enlargement of some branches and the addition of others, may be practicable, without making the New Course more than equivalent to the Old. There will be no difference in the number of recitations, &c.

The Latin Language may be substituted for the Spanish, in the cases of individuals who desire it.

Those students of either course, who shall evince their ability to perform additional exercises, will be permitted, for a small increase of expense, to take extra lessons in parts of the other course.

Examinations.

3. Of the three lower classes, the week preceding Commencement.

ADMISSION.

Candidates for admission to College are examined on Tuesday, the day preceding Commencement; or on Wednesday, the first day of the following Term.

Testimonials. The candidate for admission to College, previous to his examination, must produce satisfactory evidence that he sustains a fair moral character, and that he has completed the part of the course preparatory to the standing for which he is offered. If he has been a member of another College, a certificate of regular dismission will also be required.

Age. No one is admissible to the Freshman Class until he has completed his fourteenth year; nor to an advanced standing without a corresponding increase of age.

Payments. The amount of the first Term Bill must be paid by each student on his admission; each subsequent Term Bill becomes due at the close of the Term for which it is assessed. If the student enters in advance, the usual fee for advanced standing,—eight dollars and fifty cents per Term—will be required, unless such standing shall have been obtained in another College.—A bond in the sum of two hundred dollars for the payment of College Bills must be given within one Term after admssion, unless the student prefers to pay his Term Bills in advance. The tuition of beneficiaries of Charitable Associations, and of other indigent pious youth preparing for the Christian Ministry, is wholly paid from the Fund appropriated to that purpose. It may also be mentioned, that about thirty five indigent students are gratuitously supplied with furniture.

Laws. Each student on admission receives a copy of the Laws of College, and is constituted a member of College by signing a promise to conform to the Laws, and the regulations of the Institution.

ANNUAL EXPENSES.

College Bills, $42.
Board from $1 to 1,50 per week.
Fuel and Light from 5 to 7 dollars.
Washing from 12 to 20 cts. per week.

There are several expenses of smaller amount, not included in the above statement, which vary with circumstances, so that no estimate of them can be made.
